

Dr. Kay Miller, DC, CCSP, ART

Dr. Kay Miller, a Native of Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, began practicing in the Fox Valley in 1999 and opened Miller Chiropractic, LLC in 2003. She chose her hometown because of strong family ties and a first-hand understanding of the people which would lend itself well to her philosophy of collaborative, total healthcare; Doctor and patient working together to identify, treat and permanently resolve health issues.

Miller Chiropractic is a family-oriented, community-focused healthcare practice that believes in taking care of a patient's total health, not just treating symptoms, illness and pain. Dr. Miller holds many certifications include Nutrition, Acupuncture, Certified Chiropractic Sports Practitioner (CCSP) and Master Certified Active Release Techniques Provider (ART) providing an array of treatment options that support her philosophy of total healthcare.

A graduate of Logan Chiropractic College in St. Louis, Missouri and of Marian College of Fond du Lac, Dr. Miller is currently a Red Cross CPR instructor, as well as working full-time in her clinic. She has held instructor's positions at both Logan Chiropractic College and Moraine Park Technical College.

A proud alum of the National Job Corps, "Dr. Kay" is a member of its speaker's bureau. She also serves locally with Women in Management, Wisconsin Chiropractic Association, Fond du Lac Association of Commerce, and the Windhover Center for the Arts.

Dr. Miller is an active supporter of the community and along with her patients, supports an array of local organizations such as Fond du Lac Schools, food pantries, running clubs and organizations like the Fond du Lac Children's Museum and Red Cross. She is also a sponsor of both the Redline Triathlon Club and Fond du Lac Running Club, and volunteers at a number of Iron Man and other competitions, treating participants with Active Release Technique.
